

Entrance Examination - 2023
Ph.D. (Gender Studies)

Time 2 hours

Maximum Marks: 70

Hall Ticket No. _____

1. This question Paper consists of two parts, Part-A and Part-B. Both parts are to be attempted in the answer books provided. If necessary, additional answer books may be used.
2. Both parts carry equal marks. Part-A questions are on Research Methodology and Part B questions are on the subject Gender Studies.

PART - A

Answer any two of the following questions.

(Total Marks: 35)

1. Write an essay on the tools and methods you may use to analyse the gender dynamics of any social media content.
2. Does familiarity with the language of the field play a key role in research? Discuss.
3. A feminist perspective can bring out the inherent gender bias in science research. Illustrate.
4. Examine the significance of the feminist interpretation of quantitative data analysis.

PART - B

Answer any two of the following questions.

(Total Marks: 35)

1. Discuss the issues and challenges of women workers on the gig platform, with reference to any particular service sector.
2. How has the emphasis on “fitness” re-formulated the idea of “beauty” in present times? Illustrate.
3. The idea of “representation” is problematised in gender analysis. Discuss.
4. How are the gendered spaces constructed and restricted in the public domain? Elaborate.
